Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in Case Western Reserve University. There is some information listed below that will help answer any question you might have.

Admission Inquiries:
CWRU policy does not allow us to discuss preemptive admission decisions by phone/email, so if you would like to know the status of your application:

- Fall Applicants - please wait until the end of April to know your status.
- Spring Applicants - please wait until the end of December to know your status.

Official notification of your application decision will come from either the department you’re applying for, and/or the School of Graduate Studies.

Criteria Inquiries:
If you would like to make sure we’ve received your application materials (i.e. transcripts, letters of recommendation, GRE/TOEFL etc.) as long as your application has been “Acknowledged” from the website which you applied through, then please know we have received your application and any official requests regarding missing information will come directly from the department and/or the School of Graduate Studies.

Deadlines:
- Fall semester - February 1st for international applicants, March 1st for domestic applicants.
- Spring Semester - October 1st for international applicants, November 1st for domestic applicants.

*Please wait until after the deadlines to inquire about the status of your application.

Score Requirements:
- TOEFL: Graduate Studies requires all applicants to obtain a score of 79 or higher on the TOEFL exam.
- GRE: There is no required minimum for the GRE exam.
- GPA: 3.25 or higher

Application Requirements:
The application process requires that students submit an application part A/B with statement of objectives, 3 letters of recommendation, official transcripts, and GRE/TOEFL scores. Additional supporting material such as CV listing any research experience, publications, awards/honors, evidence of financial support, letter from sponsor, etc. may be included.

Application Fee
The only fee required is a one-time payment of $50 with the registration of your online application.

Please click on the following link to start your application process:
https://www.applyweb.com/apply/cwrug/menu.html

Thank You.

Sincerely,

Case Western Reserve University